

I love Jeanette Winterson for hearing voices, for finding salvation in poetry and for daring to write her imagination

If truth is that which lasts, then art has proved truer than any other human endeavour.
What is certain is that pictures and poetry and music are not only marks in time but marks through time, of their own time and ours, not antique or historical, but living as they ever did, exuberantly, untired.

Art Objects

Selected Bibliography

Oranges Are Not the Only
Fruit | Sexing the Cherry |
Boating for Beginners | The Passion | Written on the Body |
Art and Lies | Art Objects:
Essays in Ecstasy & Effrontery |
Gut Symmetries | The World and Other Places | The
PowerBook | The King of
Capri | Lighthousekeeping |
Weight | Tanglewreck | The
Stone Gods | The Battle of the Sun | The Lion, Unicorn and
Me | Why Be Happy When
You Could Be Normal? | The
Daylight Gate | The Gap of
Time | Christmas Days

READ

sensual poetic daring subtle inventive emotional intelligent