

I Love Maira Kalman

artist for her eccentricity,
her daydreaming,
her sense of humor,
& her love of color, cafes & cake.

The most inspiring objects are books. I have 5,000 volumes in my home library. It's an unending source of visuals and ideas.

My dream is to walk around the world. A smallish backpack, all essentials neatly in one place.

A camera. A notebook. A traveling paint set. A hat. Good shoes. A nice pleated (green) skirt for the occasional seaside hotel afternoon dance.
